Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern,

It is with great pleasure that I recommend Suveer Saigal, a Grade 10 student at The Shri Ram School, Moulsari, New Delhi for any academic or professional opportunities he wishes to pursue. Suveer recently completed a three-week paid winter internship at SailThru Ventures, a micro-venture capital firm founded by Shark Tank India Judge, Mr. Aman Gupta. The firm primarily focuses on investing in companies that appear on Shark Tank India.

During his time with us, Suveer exhibited an exceptional aptitude for the fundamentals of the start-up ecosystem. Working closely with Mr. Varun Paul, our Senior Associate, he actively participated in various facets of our operations. Suveer attended start-up pitches, analysed business models, reviewed pitch decks, conducted thorough market research, and meticulously drafted investment memos, contributing in informed decision making.

Suveer is always brimming with new ideas, he even pitched his own venture idea to the team for VitalMist, a range of deodorants and body sprays that combined fragrance with essential nutrients. His passion to be an entrepreneur stood out during the discussion.

What stood out most about Suveer was his passion and eagerness to learn. He demonstrated the ability to grasp complex business concepts quickly and applied them effectively during discussions and evaluations. His curiosity and professionalism were evident in his well-researched insights and his commitment to ensuring that every task was completed meticulously.

Suveer's proactive approach, combined with his strong communication skills, made him an asset to our team. Despite being the youngest individual in the room, he displayed remarkable maturity and a collaborative spirit, easily engaging with team members and contributing meaningfully.

I am confident that Suveer, with the right guidance and mentorship, has the potential to excel in any endeavour he chooses to pursue. His drive and dedication set him apart, and I am excited to see the incredible milestones he will achieve in the future.

We will be happy to welcome Suveer back to the SailThru family in the future.
