To Whom It May Concern,

We would like to acknowledge and appreciate the remarkable efforts of Stage 4 Change, a student-led initiative led by Aadvwaya Passi, Suveer Saigal, and Sara Gupta.

Through an inspiring theatrical performance, these young changemakers demonstrated how creativity and compassion can come together to create meaningful social impact. Through this initiative, they successfully raised ₹1,58,000. Of this amount, ₹1,00,000 was dedicated towards supporting a life-saving paediatric heart surgery for an infant born with a hole in the heart through Koshika Foundation, in collaboration with Rotary. The remaining funds were utilized for World Autism Day initiatives.

The proceeds and support generated through this initiative have been dedicated towards several important causes, including:

• Supporting children with autism and special needs through the work of Action For Autism, one of India's pioneering organizations dedicated to the rights, inclusion, and development of individuals on the autism spectrum.
• Providing a trampoline and art supplies for 175 children through Action For Autism in celebration of World Autism Day, helping create opportunities for recreation, creative expression, and inclusive learning.
• Supporting a life-saving paediatric heart surgery for an infant born with a congenital heart defect through Koshika Foundation, in collaboration with Rotary.

Their commitment to using theatre as a platform for positive change reflects exceptional leadership, empathy, and social responsibility. We commend Stage 4 Change for channeling the power of the arts towards causes that make a tangible difference in the lives of children and families in need.

We wish them continued success in their efforts to create an even greater impact in the years ahead.

With appreciation and best wishes,
