(hereinafter referred to as "IIGL")

AND

Suveer Saigal ,
Founder, Neev Ventures,
(hereinafter referred to as "Suveer")

1. Purpose of the MOU

This MOU establishes a collaborative understanding between IIGL and Suveer for the adoption, integration, and dissemination of training modules developed by Suveer across entrepreneurship, financial literacy, and grassroots capacity-building initiatives.

2. Scope of Collaboration

- Suveer has developed a series of training modules and workshop frameworks through his work with NGOs and underserved women communities under Neev Ventures.
- IIGL agrees to review, adopt, and integrate these modules into its:
    - internal training programs
    - capacity-building initiatives
    - institutional archives

3. Adoption & Usage

- IIGL will incorporate Suveer's modules as part of its internal training frameworks and learning resources.
- These materials may be used for:
    - training cohorts
    - workshops
    - educational and capacity-building programs

4. Credit & Acknowledgment

- IIGL agrees to formally acknowledge Suveer's contribution by:
  - Crediting him as the creator of the training modules
  - Featuring him on IIGL's official website/platforms
  - Mentioning his work alongside Neev Ventures as part of institutional recognition

5. Archival Inclusion

- Suveer's training content will be archived within IIGL's institutional repository, serving as a reference framework for future programs and training initiatives.

6. Rights & Continued Usage

- Suveer retains full rights to:
  - use, modify, and distribute the training modules
  - implement them in his ongoing grassroots work with NGOs and communities
- This MOU is non-exclusive, allowing both parties to use the material independently.

7. Nature of Agreement

- This MOU reflects a good-faith collaboration and does not constitute a legally binding partnership or financial obligation unless otherwise specified.

8. Duration

- This MOU shall remain in effect from 1 May 2026, for a period of 2 years or "ongoing unless terminated by either party".
